many tricks of the motion picture maker are nicely proportioned into one of the most gripping and compelling screen productions ever made.
New York and Chicago critics say the pictures, "The Sable Lorch," "Matrimony," "Stolen Magic" and "His Father's Footsteps" average nearer two dollar quality than anything yet offered in photoplays. These plays are all included in the holiday week program of the Bijou.

Helen Rossen is acting opposite and under the direction of Frank Berzage at the American (Mutual) studios, and this working arrangement would seem a very good one.

"The Siren's Song" is being shown today at the Orpheum theater, and can easily be highly recommended as a masterpiece.

The story has it in many scenes that are hair-raising, the most prominent of which is the fight which equals that in "The Spoilers" on board an ocean-going steamer at the climax of which the villain throws the hero from the deck, the latter falling a distance of over seventy-five feet into the raging ocean. To make this scene realistic it was necessary for it to be taken in the dead of night, and although there was a life-saving crew in a boat within a reasonable distance to pick him up, it took them over half an hour to find their man because of the darkness of the night.

The hero after being thrown overboard floats all night, clinging to a log in the water, is eventually picked up by some fishermen and landed in a small town along the fishing banks.

It is at this point of the story where the love element, which is one of rural simplicity and appealing to all, starts its ever entwining way to the finish.

Tomorrow, "The Master of the House," a film version of the original stage play, with the great star, Julius Steger, and a mammoth supporting cast, will be the special offering.

A stock company in Halifax is to give "Via Wireless."

Blanche Ring is to appear in a new musical comedy.

William Gillette has been doing a fine business in Boston.

A new musical comedy to have an early production is called "The Masked Model."

HOME HOSIERY INDUSTRY ON THE INCREASE

On a Large Scale on Account of the War According to a Federal Bureau.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 27.— In a study of the hosiery industry of the United States, just completed by the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce, it is pointed out that since the war started there has been a great increase in the production of hosiery in this country, and that even before the war began there had been a steady increase of about fifteen per cent annually for a number of years. One of the most noticeable results of the increased production before the war started was the rapid decrease in imports. From 1909 to 1915 imports of cotton hosiery fell off from $6,400,000 to $3-000,000, or over 50 per cent.

This report by the bureau of foreign and domestic commerce is entitled "The Hosiery Industry" and is the second of a series of studies of the clothing industry, the first of which dealt with muslin underwear. The reports are prepared by the cost of production division of the bureau and are intended primar-

MARGUERITE CLARK FILM AT THE GRAND

It is a New Famous Players' Production Called "Still Waters."

Dainty Marguerite Clark, whose list of amazing screen triumphs continues to grow, appears in a new production of the Famous Players Film Company at the Robinson Grand today, and that popular amusement resort is being crowded to capacity.
It is undoubtedly of added interest to explain that this magnetic star's latest appearance on the screen is further distinguished by the fact that sham, in a picturization of Frederick Krumm's wonderful novel, "One Million Dollars."

Pauline Frederick is delighted at the prospect of changing from the Egyptian atmosphere of "Bella Donna" to the regular, calm and collected American atmosphere of "Lydia Gilmore," which will be the next Paramount photoplay in which the Famous Players' star will appear.

The largest crowds that ever attended the Palace theater reviewed the opening performance of the newly organized Lewis-Oliver players. The company will compare with any other organization in this country in dramatic and comedy stock. It is in every sense of the term a big city company, and Jack Lewis is determined to give local theatergoers the best to be had in high class productions.

The opening bill is "Felicia," one of the most beautiful four-act dramas included in his repertoire. One patron remarked "I have seen plays from coast to coast, but this is the best little show I have ever seen for the money. No expense was spared in making it a complete scenic production and Mr. Lewis feels highly gratified in receiving the stamp of approval from the hundreds who attended Christmas day.

"Felicia" will be presented today and tomorrow only.

"The Traveling Salesman" will be presented Wednesday and the rest of the week including Wednesday and Saturday matinees. The Cadenza orchestra furnishes the music and as an added attraction vaudeville is given between the acts.

The Harold Lockwood company, under Director Tom Ricketts, is on Santa Cruz island, filming some scenes for a coming American Mutual Master picture.

The feature Triangle offering for Monday and Tuesday at the Bijou theater is another D. W. Griffith production, "The Sable Lorch." In this wonderful production, which is used to star Tully Marshall and Thomas Jefferson, we have a first rate illustration of the kind of play with a keynote of mystery and impending terror that is susceptible of even greater development on the screen than on the speaking stage. Powerful acting and
